President Acts in Threatened Strike of Railway Unions

Fact-Finding Board of Five Men Ordered to Begin Operations

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt ordered the creation today of a board to investigate the facts in the dispute between most of America's railways and their employees—a dispute which threatens to stop rail operations at a time when vital defense materials are moving over the lines.

The personnel of the five-man board will be announced later.

The 900,000 employees of 14 non-operating unions had set 6 p. m. tomorrow for a strike and the 350,000 workmen of five operating brotherhoods had voted to go out next Monday.

Also involved are members of three organizations of Railway Express workers.

The fact-finding board has 30 days in which to report to the president, and no strike may become effective, under the railway labor act, until another 30 days after the report has been filed.

The national railway mediation board had been unable to reconcile the differences between the carriers and the men who run their lines.

The operating brotherhoods have been unyielding in a demand for a 30 per cent increase in the basic rates of pay. The non-operating unions wanted the basic hourly pay rate increased by 30 to 34 cents.

In his proclamation ordering a fact-finding board established Roosevelt said the disputes between the several groups of labor organizations and the railways "now threaten substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive the country of essential transportation service."

Members Get $75 Daily
Ordinarily a three-man board is appointed to investigate labor controversies involving the railways. But the current strike situation is so broad and important that the chief executive decided that five men should be named. They are to be persons "not peculiarly or otherwise connected with the railway industry."

Retailers Cannot Demand Sales Tax Says Court Ruling

Chicago, Sept. 10.—A Superior court ruling that retailers cannot collect the 2 per cent sales tax from consumers by adding it to the listed price of merchandise appeared headed today for the Illinois Supreme court.

The decision, with its far-reaching implications, was handed down yesterday by Judge Francis B. Allegretti in a test case wherein a customer refused to pay the tax on a bill of goods purchased at a drug store.

Observers pointed out that a revision of general merchandising practices as related to collection of the tax would be necessitated should the high court uphold the Allegretti ruling.

Plaintiff in the test suit was the People's Drug Store of suburban Berwyn which acted to collect $8.56 in tax from Leslie M. Moysey on purchases of $301.88 made at the store for the six months ended July 31.

Advised Not to Pay
Former State Representative Arnold L. Lund, who as Moysey's attorney advised him not to pay the tax, contended in an answer to the suit that there was no provision in the law which imposed upon the consumer the payment of an occupational levy.

"The plaintiff (drug store) has no right to act as an agent to collect a tax," Lund contended. "The retailers' occupational tax is a tax upon the persons engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail to purchasers for use or consumption."

"x x x It is not contended that the retailer cannot reflect the tax in an increase in the price of his commodities by collecting more for the commodities."

This statement brought from Attorney Michael R. Kazunas, drug company counsel, the assertion that "it is ridiculous to assume that the retailer must add the tax to the price of his goods and thus disguise it so no one will know that the tax is not a part of the purchase price x x x."

An appeal will be carried to the state Supreme court, Kazunas said.

Keep Findings of G-Man Trained by Gestapo a Secret

New York, Sept. 10.—The government today won at least a temporary triumph in keeping secret nine precious pages detailing the findings of an FBI employee who was trained in espionage by the German Gestapo.

Federal Judge Mortimer W. Byers, presiding in Brooklyn at a trial of 16 men on espionage charges which named the German government as a co-conspirator, denied a defense motion for permission to examine the private notes which the witness, William G. Sebald, surrendered to the FBI on his return from Germany in 1940. The court also refused to allow the notes to be introduced into evidence, which would make them a privileged, public document.

Court Startled

Sebald startled the court yesterday when he disclosed that he had turned over a Gestapo espionage assignment to the FBI itself which built a "secret" radio station on Long Island and operated it for the Gestapo.

FBI agents transmitted misleading reports to the Gestapo headquarters in Hamburg based on information dug up by German spies in this country, 17 of whom have pleaded guilty to the indictment upon which the others are being tried.

In this manner, the FBI became go-between with a large espionage organization on the one hand and German spy headquarters on the other.

Hundreds of secret messages flowed through the underground communication system and FBI agents came in constant and "helpful" contact with German agents throughout the country.

Four Hungry Children Found Alone in House With 20 Booze Bottles

New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Answering an anonymous telephone call, police went to a lower east side tenement late last night. There they found four emaciated children, clad in rags and sobbing from hunger.

On the floor of the tenement were 20 empty liquor bottles and an empty potato sack.

The youngest child, aged 2, sat on a bare, dirty mattress.

The eldest, aged 10, greeted police with, "Gee we're glad to see you."

Police still are searching for the parents.

GRANT FOR HOSPITAL

Washington, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The Federal Works Agency announced yesterday a grant of $65,000 for a hospital addition at Joliet, Ill., a non-federal project to cost a total of $80,000, the sponsor contributing $15,000. The allotment was from defense public works funds.

Public Must Be Taxed More, Spend Less, Save Faster, Says Morgenthau

Boston, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau asserts that an immediate threat of inflation faces the United States and that to overcome it the public must be taxed more, spend less, save faster and submit to increased regulation.

Pledging that the administration would do everything humanly possible to prevent inflation, he called last night for laborers, farmers and business men, in the interests of the nation's welfare, to curb their desires for increased wages and profits.

He made these two general recommendations in addressing the Advertising Club of Boston:

1. Higher taxes, regulation of installment credit, increased savings and a curb on the demand for commodities.

2. Control of prices, by releasing

Soldiers Get Rest Before Big Battle

With Armies in Louisiana, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Their month of "warm-up" maneuvers ended, the approximately 500,000 men of the Second and Third armies prepared today to move into position for the start of the general headquarters war games beginning Sunday.

For two weeks the 150,000 troops of Lieut. General Ben Lear's Second army will match military might with that of Lieut. General Walter Krueger's Third army of 350,000 men in warfare involving every branch of the army.

Meanwhile, the half-million troops were given a mid-week holiday from the rigors of preliminary maneuvers which saw the Second army drive down from Arkansas in simulated warfare and the Third army engaged in intro-corps war games.

Exact location of the various divisions of the two armies was a military secret and press headquarters requested all newspapers covering the war games and all local newspapers in the maneuver area not to disclose the position of troops.

Unarmed U. S. Freighter Sunk by Bomber in Red Sea

A photo from files of the 5,719 ton freighter Steel Seafarer, which was sunk in the Red sea by an unidentified bomber, becoming the first American casualty since President Roosevelt opened the waterway to U. S. shipping in April. A British warship saved the crew. The vessel presumably carried lease-lend cargo to British middle east forces. (NEA Telephoto.)

Britain Pledges to Prevent Misuse of Lease-Lend Goods

Concerned Over Charges Material Is Used For Export Business

By The Associated Press
London, Sept. 10.—Britain, gravely concerned over charges that materials obtained from the United States under the lease-lend act were being used in direct competition with American industry to export markets, promised today to prevent such misuse and to restrict British exports.

The British government was concerned, among other things, over what its leaders called the "propaganda value to Germany" of these charges that American industry, after sacrificing to send raw materials to Britain under the lease-lend act, was being hit in foreign markets by competition with goods made from these materials.

The agreement with the United States was announced in a white paper and was said by a reliable source to be one of a series of steps planned "to prevent Germany from using lease-lend grumblings as the thin edge of a wedge to pry Britain and the United States apart and hamper the allied war effort."

Britain, this informant said, expects such a German propaganda campaign to come to a head soon and wants to be able to meet it.

Campaign Under Way

He asserted the campaign is now under way in Britain as well as in the United States; that by word of mouth seeds of dissension were being sown in British "pubs" and factories.

The charge is heard here, the source said, that the United States is trying to use the lease-lend program to bar Britain from exporting anything so that the United States can steal all British foreign markets, thus throwing British labor out of jobs after the war.

On the other hand in the United States, it was said, charges are made that Britain was accepting lease-lend goods and then sending British goods to South America to steal United States trade.

Exports Fall Off

"Actually," the source said, "our exports to South America have fallen off considerably, but the service departments won't let us give figures because they might give too much information to German sea raiders."

"One example of the kind of thing being used to strike at An-

Nazis May Drop Plan to Capture Leningrad by Storm: Talk Siege

Concede Stand of Red Army Making Attack Costly

(By The Associated Press)

High German quarters, reversing earlier assertions that Leningrad and its 1,000,000 Red army defenders were doomed to quick surrender, indicated today that Adolf Hitler's invasion forces now might decide to shell or starve the old czarist capital into submission.

Conceding that the Russians were making a bitter stand, with the bloody struggle increasing in violence hour by hour, Nazi quarters hinted that the German siege armies may not even attempt to storm the city.

With Nazi troops reported within 15 miles of Leningrad at the nearest point, authorized German spokesmen acknowledged, too, that the city still had an outlet through the German-Finnish siege ring—across Lake Lodega to the east.

German military commentators, declaring there would be no unnecessary sacrifice of Nazi troops to gain a swift triumph at Leningrad, complained bitterly that the Russians in retreat were leaving their trail sown with land mines.

In the captured city of Schlusselburg alone, the Germans said, fleeing Reds left behind 10,000 mines, some of which even were hidden in mattresses, stoves and elsewhere in a hospital.

Russians Confident

The Russians, asserting officially that "the impending rout of all the German armies can already be discerned," reported they had huddled the Germans across the river "N" after a five-day tank battle in which the Nazis lost 238 tanks.

"Almost 4,000 German soldiers and officers found their graves in the waters of the river," the Russians said, while elsewhere on the vast battlefield the Germans were said to have left "thousands of corpses" on the field.

Previously, Hitler's high command had asserted that Leningrad was completely cut off from the rest of Russia. A Berlin spokesman made the amendment today, however, that the high command referred only to the severing of land communications.

On the central front, the Berlin radio broadcast a report from "competent quarters" that German troops had captured the key town of Vyazma, only 130 miles west of Moscow.

German front-line dispatches, admitting that Leningrad's defenders were putting up a terrific battle, said the Russians were "firing from all barrels." A Nazi reporter who flew over the lines described the area as an inferno of rifle, machine-gun and artillery fire.

A bulletin from the Fuehrer's headquarters merely noted "steady successes in attack," while a Soviet communique reported that Red army troops in bitter all-night fight "continued to engage the enemy on the entire front."

Story of Bombing of American Ship Detailed by Crew

All Agree Single Bomb Sent Steel Seafarer to Bottom Friday

Suez, Egypt, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The American freighter Steel Seafarer rocked as if she had struck a reef, and sank 20 minutes after a divebomber blasted open her hull on the moonlit Red sea Friday night, crew members said on their arrival here.

Informed sources said the vessel was carrying a typical lend-lease cargo, including some machinery, army stores, accessories and spare parts, but that it represented less than 2 per cent of the total American war shipments to Britain's Middle East forces.

"I will say this for the German," commented Ralph S. Pratt of New York, the grey-haired First Mate, "he didn't machine-gun us afterwards, as some of them have done."

(The identification of the attacker as German was not amplified.)

All of the 48 men aboard the craft survived. Thirty-six pulled 10 miles in lifeboats against strong currents to a rocky island, where they were rescued by a British warship. Another British vessel picked up the remainder.

Single Explosion

Most agreed that a single explosion—a gigantic blast that ripped a hole beneath the waterline under the No. 4 hatch—marked the raid. They differed in opinions as to whether an aerial torpedo or a bomb was the cause.

"It was 11:30 o'clock Friday night when it happened," said tall, ruddy Robert Artwright of Nantucket, Mass., the helmsman. "The moon was full and we were steaming peacefully northward. Suddenly I heard a very heavy explosion to starboard and the ship rocked like we had struck a reef."

"At the same time I heard an airplane engine roar and saw a brown streak flash overhead. The plane crew must have cut off its engines, dived and then turned them on again."

The First Mate said he was thrown from his bunk.

"The washstand came out" Pratt reported. "Everything was

Army Bomber, Six Men Feared Lost

Tacoma, Wash. Sept. 10.—A forbidding 4,330-foot Cascade mountain ridge was combed today by searching parties hunting for an army bomber which vanished early yesterday with six men aboard.

The ridge is approximately 25 miles north of towering Mount Rainier, between the Snoqualmie and Chinook Pass cross-state highways.

Col. William H. Crom, commander of McChord Field, the bomber's base, believed that the bomber might have turned southward from the Spokane-Seattle radio beam too soon as it approached Seattle, not reckoning with a tricky head wind. The ship's natural course would bear from the beam to reach its base, to the southwest.

Searchers went to the region

State Police Sergeant Files Charge Against Comptonite in Ottawa Court

Sergeant Edward Mahan of the state police force went to Ottawa yesterday where he filed an information in the LaSalle county state's attorney's office, charging Levi Johnson of Compton with drunken driving. Johnson is to be arraigned in the LaSalle County court Sept. 17. He was arrested by Sergeant Mahan Monday morning at 1 o'clock following a collision involving three cars on U. S. route 51, four miles north of Mendota, in which Pvt. LeRoy Friedlein of Camp Grant, whose home is in Mendota, and Miss Doris Barnhart of Steward suffered painful injuries.

Friedlein suffered a deep cut over his right eye and Miss Barnhart cuts and bruises about the face. Both were treated at the Harris hospital in Mendota.

According to reports, Johnson's car, northbound on highway 51, collided with the machine driven by Friedlein, going south, spinning it into the path of the car following Johnson. The third car struck Friedlein's car on the right front. Driving the third car was Harold Frank Compton, who was accompanied by Miss Barnhart. Frank was unhurt.

The Johnson car, after striking Friedlein's machine, traveled about 250 feet before coming to a stop on the west shoulder of the highway. The other two cars landed in a ditch on the east side of the highway about 50 feet from the point of the crash.

Roosevelt Revises His Radio Address For Thursday Night

He Stresses Import of What He'll Have to Say About Affairs

Aboard Roosevelt Train enroute to Washington, Sept. 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt completed today a radio address on foreign affairs, to be made from the White House tomorrow night, and underscored the vital importance he has attached to it by nearly doubling its length.

Timed for 8 p. m. (CST), it will run about 25 minutes instead of the quarter hour originally planned. White House officials still were not divulging the specific phases of the international situation with which the chief executive would deal.

Conjecture developed largely around the chances of his discussing the battle of the Atlantic, and incidents which have emphasized its dangers for American men and ships.

Roosevelt finished his speech just before leaving his home at Hyde Park, N. Y., on a special train bound for Washington.

Makes Appointments

Because of his mother's death, the chief executive had put aside for several days most of the pressing problems of his office. But he asked his secretariat to make appointments for him in Washington, either for tonight or tomorrow, with Secretaries Hull, Knox and Stimson.

Harry L. Hopkins, lease-lend director, was boarding the presidential special in New York to report during the trip to the capital on the aid program and international developments from which Roosevelt has been somewhat isolated.

Also getting on in New York was Justice Samuel F. Rosenman of the New York state Supreme court, who has been studying reorganization of the defense set-up for Roosevelt.

Coming to the White House tomorrow for a conference on legislative business will be the usual set of congressional leaders, or as many of them as may be in town.

To a question whether the projected talks with the secretaries of state, war and navy had any connection with the radio address, William D. Hassett, of the White House secretariat, told reporters: "You might make your own deductions."

Early Agreement on Big Revenue Measure Likely

Washington, Sept. 10.—(AP)—With rosy prospects for a speedy agreement, a joint conference committee went to work today to adjust the differences in the house and senate versions of the huge new defense tax bill.

Although the senate bill called for $3,538,000,000 in new revenue—$367,500,000 more than provided for by the house, leaders in both chambers expressed optimism that the conferees would be able to agree on a compromise version by the end of the week.

If the conferees needed any added incentive for quick work, there was the fact that the treasury theoretically is losing an estimated $2,000,000 a day pending the effectiveness of the new excise levies provided for by the measure.

In Two or Three Days

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee, who guided the history-making legislation through the senate, agreed with Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the house ways and means committee that only two or three days would be needed to adjust differences between the separate chambers.

Doughton sought to help the compromise work along with a statement that he had "no particular objection" to a senate amendment reducing personal income tax exemptions from $2,000 to $1,500 for married persons and from $800 to $750 for single persons.

That amendment, however, conceivably might produce considerable discussion for there was talk that some house conferees preferred to have the exemption of married persons reduced only to $1,750.

CAPTIVATED CAPP-or, if you prefer, Dotty about Dotty. At any rate, the photograph shows Al Capp, who draws the hilarious hill-billy comic "Li'l Abner", sketching Dorothy Lamour, who draws millions to movie box-offices. The occasion, or rather the excuse Al has seized upon, for this task is the forthcoming appearance of Miss Lamour in person in Mr. Capp's comic, Daisy Mae, heroine of the newspaper feature, is not yet aware that Miss Lamour is to be with her in the cast of characters. But Li'l Abner is, and he is all ready with a nifty, if Daisy Mae should have cause to charge him with fickleness. "Now, Daisy Mae," he plans to say, "Miss Lamour an' me is no' mo' than frens. Summer Theater Is Presenting Comedy, "Kempy"

This week's presentation of the Grand Detour Players at Illini hall is the laugh-provoking farce, "Kempy," a delightful comedy of small town life that played for more than a year on Broadway, where it was first produced several seasons ago.

The story is that of a stage-struck small-town girl with city ideas, who labors under the delusion that her talents are just what the musical comedy stage needs. Her fiancé, a quick-thinking attorney, disapproves of her theatrical inclinations, and they quarrel.

At an opportune moment, a bewildered young plumber appears on the scene, and the girl, to spite her lover, whisks the plumber off to the justice of the peace and marries him. To complicate matters further, the plumber falls in love with the girl's younger sister, and that, together with the fact that the plumber is under age, prompts the attorney to have the marriage annulled.

The crochety father of the two girls, their vague mother, the brusque married sister and her husband comprise the cast of characters for the play.

Toni Lumley will portray the temperamental daughter, with Maurice Blythe, who made his 1941 debut with the players as Rogers Woodruff in last week's show, "When Ladies Meet," will appear as the attorney. Don Randall is to interpret the role of the young plumber, Edith Perry will portray the younger sister, with Joan Norlander and John Cosgrove as the parents. E. Melba Johnson will be seen as the married sister, and Wallace Dace, her salesman husband.

Performances will be given as usual on Thursday, through Sunday evenings, with a Sunday matinee at 2:30 p. m.

Chicagoans Observe Defense Day Today

Chicago, Sept. 10. — (AP) — Chicago observed "Defense Day" today with patriotic exercises honoring the civilian and military workers in the rearmament program and emphasizing what Mayor Edward J. Kelly described as the necessity for "defense of our nation and the maintenance of security in our way of life."

Kelly's proclamation of Defense Day was read in all public school classrooms and patriotic demonstrations were arranged in scores of Chicago neighborhoods and industrial plants.

The mayor said the ceremonies offered "an opportunity to dedicate ourselves anew to the American creed of Democratic freedom" and admonished Americans to be alert to all danger. The peoples of German conquered nations, he observed, "refused to recognize their danger until it was too late."

A Thought For Today

All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.—Matthew 12:31.

Forgiveness to the injured does belong, but they need pardon who have done wrong.—Dryden.

Order Your Coal Early

September and school opening are now only a couple of weeks in the offing, our hottest weather is behind (we hope) and wise householders are preparing for fall and winter.

One of these preparations is the filling of the coal bin.

This is an unusual period. What the fall and winter will bring is unpredictable. It has been reported that, owing to unsettled conditions and the prospect of price control, dealers are unable to assure a fixed price for future deliveries of coal. Transportation, too, may play an important part in coal deliveries this winter. So we're advising coal users to let their dealer know your needs as early as possible.

We're told, of course, that some grades of coal delivered long in advance "slack" and deteriorate from storage. Don't let this prevent your giving your order early, for later delivery. Let your dealer know your needs as early as possible.

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE FROM THE SKY

BY HELEN WELSHIMER

THE STORY: Associate magazine editor Judy Allen is not sure she loves her fiancé Sandy Ammerman until his disappearance on a test flight from New York to the west coast indicates he may have crashed. Judy tries to carry on at her office, finally asks attorney Philip Rogers, another suitor, if he will go somewhere with her. "And if I do?" Phil asks.

NEWS ABOUT SANDY

CHAPTER III

FOR a fraction of an instant, Judy hesitated at Philip Rogers' calm and steady words. "And if I do?" he had asked, knowing that her quest, whatever it was, would concern Sandy.

"I want you to charter a plane and help me hunt for Sandy," she whispered. "When we find him . . . when we find him, Phil, won't there be time enough to say what we will do? I have some money . . . I'll give the office boy my bank book and pay for anything I can. I'll pay the rest of my debt later. I promise I will." Her eyes supplanted.

Phil came closer, took the slim hands in his, held them. His eyes were warm and sympathetic. His eyes were kinder than Judy had known they could be. His lips did not laugh.

"Never mind the bank book," he said. "Skyways Incorporated is one of our clients. I'll get a plane and we'll leave as soon as possible. Better get a cab and run down home to dress and be ready. Wait for me at your apartment."

It seemed to Judy that the cab stopped for a red light or a traffic jam at every intersection. Was life forever to be like that? Would one obstacle after another keep one from the Promised Land?

Maybe no one ever knew how close it had been until its spires disappeared. She was turning the key in the wide door of the old red brick house where she lived before she remembered that she had not told her secretary where she was going. Nor had she notified her editor. It was funny how the amenities of life went on when you didn't know if life had hurt you or merely frightened you.

Two telephone calls straightened out the tangled web of the day. She had a week's vacation due her from the previous summer.

The managing editor said, "Judy honey, if someone close to you is missing, of course you must go! Luck go with you, child, and it will do Sara good to work a little harder."

Sara Fuller, the secretary-assistant to Judy, tall, graceful, slim, with black hair and cool green eyes, waited patiently on the line until Judy gave a brief explanation of her work.

"There is no need to explain anything really, Miss Allen," her rich, amused voice said. "I quite understand it all, perhaps some of it a little better than you do."

"For instance, just what?" Judy's husky voice asked. Then she remembered, "Oh, the layout on summer shoes! You were sweet to pick out the ones we wanted. But, Sara, I do have another job for you. My notes on the sketch about a stylist personality are in order, top drawer, left hand, in my desk. Will you make a copy, two carbons, and turn them over to Miss Bernard?"

Her telephone rang softly, gently, and she flew to answer. Phil answered her eager greeting.

"Good news?" She fingered the cord nervously.

Later she was to remember the instant's silence before the girl's voice came back, keyed to a happier key. "Yes, I shall be glad to do that."

THE morning sunshine gleamed through the casement windows, and half a dozen bronze bowls of yellow daisies danced in the shimmering light. Usually Judy paused appreciatively when she looked at her living room.

She liked the tall windows with their warm yellow drapes, the deep chairs, some in brown with a fringe of yellow roses in their coverings, one that let yellow be the background for brown flowers. There were small tables, many lamps, a wide studio couch on which cushions were piled in vibrant luxury. In a far corner was a maple cupboard that she had picked up for a couple of silver pieces at an auction one day. New colored glass goblets, deep blue, dark red, and purple, made a rainbow on its shelves. Crowded bookshelves, here as in her office, were everywhere.

This morning she did not notice the room. Nothing but the great fireplace that covered one wall. There was a fresh log on it, and the brass andirons had been newly polished. Sandy had sent that log two weeks ago, because she had had nothing but coal one night. Applewood was sweeter, he had said. Its fragrance and its colors were lovelier.

For a moment, dark striken eyes saw the log again—now a tall figure standing by, a bright head stooping to watch the fire take hold.

Then she was in the dressing room, selecting a coat to wear over the dark dress. She removed her rose hat for a sophisticated one that was advertised lavishly in the magazine. She gathered warm gloves, fitted a small overnight case,

Mr. Willkie Faces a Test

Nominally, Wendell Willkie remains head of the Republican party. If you care to test the Willkie influence, circulate among Republicans and ask them whether they consider him as their leader.

It is rumored that Willkie is about to make a purge of isolationists in the party. If the gentleman undertakes to eliminate four-fifths of his former adherents he will leave the circus practically intact, with himself trying to operate a competing side-show.

The fact is that Mr. Willkie will have to prove that he has not purged himself out of the party. Soon after election he was asked why his post-election conversation did not harmonize with what he said when he was charging that if Roosevelt were elected we'd be taken into the war.

He dismissed his questioners with the statement that what he said on his grand swing from Rushville was just "campaign oratory."

Now when a man shouts himself voiceless in a just cause, and then repudiates that cause as mere campaign oratory, he has done something which, we believe, no successful runner-for-office ever did before. He has gone as far as a runner-for-office ever went to alienate those who still believe in what was said during the campaign oratory.

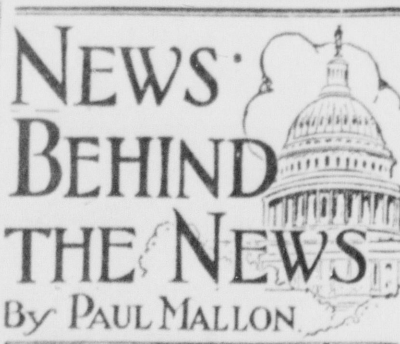

Some Republicans are open to conviction even today, but the convincing will have to be done by Mr. Willkie.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The government has worked itself into such complete inner confusion over the Kearny shipyard's settlement that someone will probably have to call Mr. Roosevelt in again to straighten it out.

Root of the trouble is the union president John Green thought he was going to get a prize new union privilege—"the maintenance of union contract"—out of the government if it seized the plant. The government cannot now easily deliver, and thus commit itself to establishing the same privilege in all navy yard unions and other defense plants over the country.

The harrowing details have been spared from public announcement but practically everyone in the government from the top down through all the labor agencies wishes the whole matter could be forgotten. Green's understanding was based on his dealings with the president's defense labor chieftain Sidney Hillman and the Labor Mediation Board. Particularly Chairman Davis. Green naturally thought the "promise" bore the president's approval, especially as the board panel had previously approved the granting of such a privilege by the private company operating the plant. In fact, Green publicly announced his expectations after the government had taken the plant. As a consequence his wrath has been great.

Just to make the matter about as bad as possible, the navy department now wants to keep the plant permanently. The U. S. Steel Company publicly announced it was willing to sell. Navy Secretary Knox has been working in that direction, in conference with the company officials.

But as the navy is now operating the plant, the union has no contract whatever. If the navy takes it over permanently, the union suspects it will have lost its prestige and will lose its members also.

The strike settlement which Hillman and the board had planned, would have frozen wages to be paid by U. S. Steel at the plant for two years. Now without a contract, the union has nothing frozen.

Hillman has been working on a solution which would sidetrack the argument deftly but weakly and not without embarrassment. If he and the union could get the government to purchase the plant through the usual RFC loan subterfuge, the curse of direct government management could be avoided and the union could get what it wants, RFC would merely put up the money and have the plant managed privately, as has been done in some other instances. 'Tis, the navy would fight.

Thus did the matter progress from the start—backwards.

The confusing counterclaims in the Greer destroyer incident inspired just as much speculation around Washington as elsewhere—and with as little resulting light. Certain navy men saw the incident as a German desire to strengthen morale at home, to offset the Russian failures, a design to strengthen patriotism further against outside influences. They took the view the German fired first.

By far the greater number of authorities, however, traced the development back to Navy Secretary Knox's announced decision to drop depth bombs whenever the sound of a nearby submerged submarine is detected. Such incidents naturally would flow from such a policy, and the wonder is not that the reports should be conflicting, but that such an incident was delayed so long.

Congress took the destroyer situation without indicating unusual alarm. Beyond his published quotes, Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Tom Connally, for a typical instance, expressed the opinion only that a series of repeated attacks would inspire an open declaration.

Since the picture of Bernard Baruch holding council with friends like Leon Henderson in Lafayette park here was published in magazines the post office has been receiving letters addressed to him in care of "The Bench in the Park."

The mail has been sent on to him at the Carlton hotel, where most of his conferences are held.

SPRINGFIELD GETS JUMPY WAITING FOR RAIN TO STOP

(By The Associated Press)

No one can blame the Springfield Browns if they're getting a bit jumpy waiting for the rain to stop. Here they are in the Three Eye League playoffs for the fourth time in four years and they haven't been able to play a post-season game in three tries.

For the third straight time last night the Springfield-Cedar Rapids playoff opener was postponed because of rain. Evansville and Decatur, at the critical stage in their best three-out-of-five game series, fared no better when they were rained out too.

Evansville, regular season champion, won the first two playoff tilts from the Combies, and needs only one more triumph to reach the final round opposite the Springfield-Raiders victor.

Pay for Militiamen Again Discussed in Legislative Circles

Governor Green Is Non-committal on Special Assembly Session

Danville, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP) — Sentiment is being sounded among Republican legislators to determine if they favor petitioning Gov. Dwight H. Green for a special legislative session to appropriate funds for drill pay of state reserve militiamen, Senator John W. Speakman (R-Danville) said today.

Disclosure of the special session move was made as Governor Green came here on his state inspection tour and reviewed Danville units of the militia. Speakman said he had written a letter to Senator T. Mac Downing of Macomb, a leading advocate of compensation for militiamen, and expected to contact other G. O. P. senators on the proposal.

Downing and Speakman were among 23 Republican senators who sponsored in the regular session of the legislature a bill to appropriate slightly more than $1,000,000 for the militia. The bill passed the senate unanimously but died in the house appropriations committee in the closing days of the session in June.

Speakman said he had not yet had a reply from Downing.

Men Receive No Pay

That bill would have allowed one dollar for each weekly drill for privates and $250 annually for officers in the reserves. Approximately 6,000 men now serving in the militia receive no compensation.

"A number of militia officers and men feel they should receive nominal compensation because a good many of them have to travel 30 to 40 miles to attend drills, and of course have to pay their own expenses," Speakman said. "My idea now is to find out if there is enough sentiment among members of the legislature to warrant a request for a special session."

The governor, before leaving here this morning for Champaign-Urbana on the final lap of his ten-day inspection of state parks and institutions, said he had not yet been approached about a special session. He declined to say what his attitude would be.

Militia officers have told him in his visits around the state that training of the home guard is "going along fine," the governor added.

Says People Are Grateful

In a brief talk to Danville militiamen last night, the governor said:

"I know that the people of Illinois are grateful to you men for the sacrifices you are making as a patriotic service to the state."

Speakman said he believed a controversy over a milk marketing bill resulted indirectly in the earlier defeat of the militia appropriation bill, rather than administrative opposition. Opponents of the milk marketing legislation succeeded, he said, in blocking a quorum at sessions of the house appropriations committee when both measures were scheduled for consideration.

Green also visited Kickapoo state park near here yesterday. His agenda today included visits to the University of Illinois, a drive over a proposed Champaign-Rantoul superhighway route, and a luncheon to be attended by state agricultural leaders. The governor is scheduled to return to Springfield tonight.

LOUIS HAS SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Louis Bevilacqua, Jr., of this city, has had a very successful and active season in the south, where he is the property of the Chattanooga baseball association and is playing with the Thomasville, Ga., team this season. The annual play-offs which will decide the winners in the Georgia-Florida league are in progress and Louis won his first game in this all-important series. This season, he has won 18 and lost 13 games, indicating a very active season, despite the fact that he was absent for a few weeks with a sore arm condition. President Joe Egle of the Chattanooga club has announced that Louis is his best pitching prospect this season and will retain him next year. The promising young Dixon right hander expects to remain in the south during the winter months where he has been offered a position at a government air base at Valdosta, Fla., at the expiration of the playing season which closes this week end.

TENTATIVE LINEUP

Dixon's gridiron Dukes open the 1941 football season here Friday night in a game with Oregon under the lights and thus get the "jump" on several other schools who are waiting until next Friday to get going. Coach C. B. Lindell today announced a tentative "either-or" lineup for Friday's opener. Left end will be either Shank or Knack; left tackle—Weaver or Thompson; left guard—Potts or Hink; center—Shiars or Fulmer; right guard—Hoeman or Hess; right tackle—Evans or Edwards; right end—R. Collins or Weidman; quarterback—Van Meter, Gilbert or Loftus; left halfback—Schlake or Koth; right halfback—Joynt or Weidman; fullback—Egler or Joynt.

REPORT FROM STERLING

Over at Sterling they are saying, "Coach Ted Scheid's S. H. S. squad will have to show considerable more speed if the team expects to get anywhere this season. Thus far the boys act as if it were an effort to move. It's going to be strictly up to the boys as to whether they win or lose. They can not rest on the laurels of the teams in the past." Thus spake the scribes (ouch!)

BACK TO BELOIT

Bill Moser returns to Beloit college this year and is one of the candidates for backfield position on the football team. About 30 players and members of the coaching staff arrived at Madeline Island on Lake Superior Tuesday for their ten-day pre-season training period. So far as known, Beloit is the only college to use a northern resort for this purpose.

JOINS BALL CLUB

A business scout for the Detroit Tigers baseball club spent the week end in Oregon and signed Merle Snodgrass, son of Mrs. Thomas Snodgrass, to play with the Detroit team next year as first sacker. Snodgrass lives northwest of Oregon.

DIXON GALS TO ASHTON

The Dixon One-Step girls' softball team will play at Ashton Thursday night.

ATTEND COACHES' MEETING

Coaches C. B. Lindell, Marvin Winger, L. E. Sharpe, Athletic Director A. C. Bowers and son Don and Bob Underwood attended a meeting for coaches and officials in Dekalb last night. Milt Vaughn, former Dixon man and now an officer in the Mid-West Officials association, interpreted the rules for 1941 for the coaches of this division of the State High School Athletic Association.

Betty Jameson is Eliminated From Women's Meet

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 10.—(AP)—The startling elimination of Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., top-heavy favorite to gain her first straight Women's National soft title, failed to bolster the hopes of the lesser lights today as they faced the dread task of two rounds of match play at The Country club.

When Miss Jameson bowed to the surprising Janet Younker of White Plains, N. Y., by 1 up, after having a four-hole lead at the halfway point of their first rounder yesterday, the dethroned Texan queen's robes were draped over the shoulders of Mrs. Betty Hicks Newell of Long Beach, Cal. Mrs. Newell convinced all her remaining rivals that she was of championship calibre when she paced through 11 holes in three under par to overwhelm Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., 6 to 7. That one-sided victory paired Mrs. Newell, owner of the California title, with another former westerner, Betty Jean Rucker of Spokane, Wash. A second round win will move Mrs. Newell against either Miss Younker or Mrs. William Hockenjos, Jr., the New Jersey champion, later in the day.

Two Other Threats

Two other California threats, Mrs. James Ferrie and Clara Calender, both semi-finalists last year, also were expected to encounter stiffer competition in the second round against Gail Wild of Springfield, N. J., and Elinor Jones of Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Greensboro, N. C., the 1937 national champion, loomed as the south's standard bearer for she appeared to have an easier second round assignment against Toronto's Grace Sears, the only foreign starter, than any of the other seven survivors in her delegation. Louise Suggs of Atlanta, the southern champion, was paired against no less than the famed Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare of Philadelphia, a six-times winner, and the capable Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas, Tex., drew Mrs. H. Warren Beard of Newton, thrice a Massachusetts champion.

Before Miss Jameson's sudden loss of her putting touch forced her to the sidelines, Monday's three other co-medallists also had been eliminated, all by 3 and 2 margins. Grace Amory of Locust Valley, N. Y., bowed to Mrs. Reinert Torgerson of Great Neck, N. Y.; Jane Bauer of Providence, R. I., surrendered to Miss Suggs, and Alice Belanger of Beverly, Mass., was ousted by Mrs. Sylvia Annenberg Leichter of Flushing, N. Y.

SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

Detroit, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Gov. Murray D. Van Wagener will draw first round opponents for the impending championship Kodak park tour from Rochester, N. Y., in the opening of the world's softball tournament at University of Detroit stadium tonight.

Approximately 2,700 players from every state in the union, Puerto Rico and Canada will be present at the tourney.

Tennessee became the 15th largest state in the 1940 census, replacing Alabama.

Zuppke's 29th Illini Football Team Begins Practice

57 GRIDDERS TO CARRY BURDENS OF SCHEDULE

Zuppke Finds All Eyes Are On Him After Summer Battle

By DAVE HOFF

Campaign, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Twenty-eight years ago a young high school football coach came to Champaign to take over the University of Illinois grid team. His arrival was unheralded, and he ducked into a downtown restaurant alone for lunch.

As he ate, he noticed a waiter staring at him intently. This went on for several minutes. Then the waiter approached his table.

"Aren't you Bob Zuppke, the new Illinois football coach," he asked.

The little Dutchman nodded.

"Well," said the waiter, "I might as well tell you now we've all got our eyes on you."

Something of the same sort might have expressed the situation today as Zuppke's 29th Illini football team began practice.

Zuppke is back this fall after a hectic summer in which his ouster at one time appeared imminent. Winner in what was termed a "squabble" athletic "feud" and out-and-out "determination of future sports policy," Zuppke earned a one-year renewal of his job, and what happens this fall decides if Zup will stay until the retirement age of 65. He is now 62.

Thus it was under the eyes of students on campus and thousands of Illinois alumni that Zuppke lined up his squad of 57 gridders for the initial workout this morning.

Capt. Joe Turek was not present, having failed to gain eligibility during summer school sessions. Jimmy Easterbrook of Urbana, sparkling back of last year, has taken a civilian job at Chanute Field and also was off the squad list. But there were 13 lettermen back for 1940, and a welcome 14th was Jimmy Smith of Murphysboro, who played on the 1939 team but was out with an injured knee last year.

Dick Good of South Bend, Ind., an excellent passer, and Don Griffin, sophomore from Chicago and a capable runner, may team up with Smith to supply the Illini with needed scoring punch. In fact, it isn't so much the backfield as the line that appears the chief problem of Zuppke and his associates.

There were some front wall veterans on hand, including Paul Milosovich of Zeigler and Bob Gibbs of Peoria, ends; Nathan Johnson of Benton, a 6 foot 3 inch tackle; Dave Dillon of Champaign, who can play tackle or end, and Bob Cherry of Girard, center.

Sophs Return

From last year's sophomores came Ken Cheeley of Foley, Minn., a center; Elmer Engel of La Salle, a center; Joe Pawlowski of Aurora, a guard, and Bob Wallin of Rockford, a tackle, who may plug gaps in the line. Standouts among the first-year linemen on the squad were Chuck Gervig of Belleville, a 205-pound tackle; Al Agase, short, stocky center who played at Evanston high school, and Rop Hoppe of Blue Mound, 210-pound tackle.

Lavere "Liz" Astroth, Alton halfback; Bob Falkenstein, Naperville halfback; Myron Pfeiffer, Illinois fullback, and Johnny Worban, Chicago halfback, were other lettermen who may give the Illini strength in the backfield.

Assisting Zuppke in preparing the Illini for an eight-game schedule, including five Big Ten contests and a non-conference tilt with Notre Dame, were Justa Lindgren, beginning his 38th season with the Illini; Doug Mills, acting director of athletics; Ray Elliot, John Tarwin, and Walter Crawford. Elliot will be line coach, aided by Lindgren. Mills will coach the backfield, Tarwin will handle the ends and Crawford will direct the second varsity.

Miami university will open the season here Oct. 4.

MIKE JACOBS SIGNS LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMP

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Mike Jacobs, the boxing baron of New York, recently signed a five-year contract with Sammy Angott, the lightweight champion, and thereby gave the National Boxing Association some ammunition for its announced warfare against "monopolistic control" of boxing.

The association, holding its annual convention here, placed Angott on the suspended list yesterday and said there's where he'll stay until he fights. The organization said he failed to abide by its rule that a titleholder must defend his crown against a top ranking foe within one year. But that in itself wasn't expected to prove much of a hindrance to Angott since he is booked to go against Lew Jenkins in New York October 31.

While the delegates omitted names in their resolution, they decided to seek evidence to break the practice of "monopolistic control" which ensnares all fighters of prominence and makes them subject to a single promoter.

Full Mobilization Is Ordered in Big Ten Grid Camps

Chicago, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Full mobilization was ordered today in the football camps of the Western Conference.

The first day of drills found six of the nine teams with only 17 days to prepare for their opening games. The first conference tilt is Oct. 4 when Iowa and Michigan play at Ann Arbor, but inter-sectional contests will supply heavy action prior to the start of Big Ten activity by some of the other schools.

With prospects of a season of record crowds and heightened athletic programs at all the universities, some 600 gridders met with their coaches, only one of whom is a first-year man. He is Paul Brown, stepping into the coaching post at Ohio State direct from a high school position. The veteran of the Big Ten is Bob Zuppke, starting his 29th year at Illinois.

But attention was focused primarily on the man with the heavy artillery, Bernie Bierman of Minnesota, whose Golden Gophers won the 1940 title and appear to have equally bright chances this year.

Notre Dame's 1941 team also began workouts today under a new coach, Frank Leahy, formerly of Boston college, who succeeded Elmer Layden, new commissioner of the National Pro Football League.

Franck Is Gone

While George Franck's great ability as a halfback is denied to the Minnesota eleven this year because of his graduation, Capt. Bruce Smith, Franck's ball-carrying mate last year, heads a list of more than 20 lettermen from whom Bierman can glean possibly a half-dozen regulars. Tackle Urban Odson and Guard Helge Pukema are a pair of returning star linemen from last year's machine.

Michigan, which lost by one point to Minnesota last year to miss out on a perfect record, also lost Tom Harmon, Forest Evashevski and other stars by graduation, but comes up with Capt. Bob Westfall, George Cotham and Cliff Wise, backs, and Al Wisetert, a tackle, as a nucleus on which Coach Fritz Crisler hopes to build another standout aggregation.

Northwestern Is Threat

Northwestern, under Coach Lynn Waldorf, rates as a real threat because of a fine crew of returning ball carriers, including Bill DeCorrevont, Don Clawson and Capt. Tuffy Chambers. With the exception of the center position, Waldorf can muster a veteran line, built around Al Bauman, Leon Cooke, Nick Burke and George Zorich.

Bo McMillin is faced with a line-building job at Indiana, but if he finds the combination he has a bright sophomore backfield prospect in Billy Hillenbrand to augment Dale Swihart, junior halfback; Bob White, fullback, and Eddie Herbert, returning after a year's absence to bid for the quarterback post.

At Purdue they're mourning the graduation of End Dave Rankin, but a squad of 24 lettermen and 19 reserves brightens Coach Mal Elward's task. He, too, has a job constructing a line, and in particular must find a pivot man.

Illinois lost its captain, Joe Turek, through ineligibility, and yielded Jimmy Easterbrook, a zippy halfback, to a civilian army job. But Jimmy Smith, another back, returning after a year's injury layoff, helps to improve the offensive picture provided the right line combination can be found.

New Coach At Ohio

Ohio State has its new coach and a new system but doesn't have Don Scott, Jim Strausbaugh, Capt. Jim Langhurst, and 12 other lettermen who graduated. Thornton Dixon and Jim Daniel, veteran tackles, form the basis of a line.

Bob Ray, Tommy Farris, Mark Hoskins and Bud Seelinger offer Wisconsin prospects of a good backfield, while Coach Harry Stuhldreher must fill in gaps in a front wall which probably will see Pat Lyons, Dave Schreiner, Lloyd Wasserbach and Dick Thornally as fixtures.

Capt. Bill Diehl and Jim Walker are key figures in Iowa's early-season hopes as Coach Eddie Anderson seeks to improve on the squad which played its best 1940 football in the final month. All but two of last November's regular linemen are back and Bill Green, the 1940 leading yard-gainer, bolsters the backfield situation.

Notre Dame stole the march yesterday by sending 52 players—its smallest squad in years—through the opening workout, but it was only for the cameras. The Irish gridders were ordered to turn out at 7:30 a. m. today to avoid the midday heat.

Figures from eight Canadian points of entry show that 61,700 motor cars from the United States entered the Dominion on 60-day permits during the week ending July 5, 1941, compared with 26,535 in the corresponding week last year.

During June, domestic air lines carried 553,474 revenue passengers—a total of 130,680,225 passenger-miles, which, incidentally, is an all-time high.

control which ensnares all fighters of prominence and makes them subject to a single promoter.

Louisville Kicks Up Fuss in The Playoff Series

(By the Associated Press) Louisville, the team with only two hitters over 300, the outfit that finished fourth in the American Association in 1939 and 1940 and then took the governors' cup playoff series both years, is kicking up a fuss again in this year's post-season series.

Behind a capable pitching staff of Oscar Judd, Emerson Dickman, Bill Lefebvre, Owen Scheetz and Bill Butland, the Colonels finished second in the season just ended. While first-place Columbus was matched with Kansas City in one half of playoffs, the Louisville club drew fourth-place Minneapolis as its opponent.

In the opening game of the series last night the Colonels treated the Millers to a 3 to 1 lead in the first four innings and then brought home three runs in the seventh for a 4 to 3 victory.

This was done on a total of five hits off three Minneapolis pitchers, and in a way was typical of Louisville's performance much of the season.

Damp Evening

The two clubs had a thoroughly damp evening in Louisville. Rain held up the game in the first of the seventh, with the Millers ahead. Then play was resumed. In the Colonels' half Walt Cazen, one of the 500-plus hitters, beat out a bunt and moved up when Junie Andres walked. Rain again held up the game.

After play started again Mike Kash replaced Mickey Haefner on the mound for Minneapolis. Tony Lupien flied out and Cazen took third. Scoring when Chet Morgan was safe on an error, Andres, who had gone to third, scored on Joe Glenn's fly to the outfield and Dickman, the Louisville pitcher, singled home Morgan with what proved to be the winning run.

Red Birds Win

The champion Columbus Red Birds, behind two-hit pitching by Johnnie Grodzicki, won their playoff opener from Kansas City, 6 to 1. They nicked George Barley, the Blues' starting hurler, and Charley Wensloff, his successor, for double runs in each of the first, fifth and seventh frames. Meanwhile Grodzicki was stingy with his hits and yielded only three walks. He also hit one batter.

Grodzicki won 19 games and lost 5 during the regular season. Minneapolis will play two more games at Louisville before the teams move to the Millers' home park for the rest of the four-out-of-seven series, while Kansas City and Columbus will follow the same procedure. Judd was expected to pitch for the Colonels tonight, opposed by Chief Hogsett of Minneapolis.

At Columbus the pitching selections were expected to be Mito Candini for Kansas City and Murry Dickson for the Red Birds.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press) Babe Young, Giants—Hit two home runs, one with mate aboard in tenth inning to beat Pirates. Bucky Walters, Reds—Kept the Braves under control till Reds scored victory.

Tom Henrich and Spud Chandler, Yankees—Henrich hit home run in eighth inning to bring 1-0 victory over Browns on Chandler's four-hit hurling.

Bob Feller, Indians—Kept nine hits spaced to beat Athletics. Dick Newsome and Dom DiMaggio, Red Sox—Newsome pitched four-hit ball and DiMaggio hit homer with bases loaded to down Tigers.

Arnold Anderson, Senators—

Sports Roundup

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—

(The Special News Service)—The girls are making their own news in the women's golf at Brookline. Besides playing in the tournament, Dorothy Kirby (Atlanta Constitution) and Betty Hicks Newell (Long Beach Press-Telegram) are reporting it for their papers. Minnesota already has sent out an SOS for more tickets for the Washington game September 27 at Seattle. The first allotment of 2,000 is about gone. The Indians, who played the Tigers on Tommy Bridges Day, all contributed their dimes to help buy a gift for Tom. Nothing like being obliging. Even Bill Terry isn't arguing about the Dodgers being in the league this year since Brooklyn's games at the Polo Grounds drew 313,147 customers and the Giants cut in on 220,646 admissions at Ebbets Field. Guys who knew Lou Nova in college weren't surprised at his goofy demonstrations of his "cosmic punch." One of them recalls how Lou used to go around with his arm in a sling to rest it so he could throw the javelin better on Saturday.

At the flanks are Robert Ludwig and Fred Preston, with George Abel, probably the hardest tackler in the conference with his 200 pounds and a sprinter's speed, at one guard and Fred Meier at the pivot post. All are major letter winners.

The other guard post will probably go to William Bryant or Lynn Myers, both of whom saw action last year although not enough to letter, or Herb Von Goetz, a sophomore.

These are the lads who make Coach Major Lawrence M. Jones a pretty chipper fellow despite the loss of 13 seniors by graduation, four players to the National Guard that went to the Rose Bowl after last year's one-defeat season.

Nebraska Will Defend Crown With Tough Line

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 10.—(AP)—A big, tough, experienced line bars the way of any Big Six squad with thoughts of taking the conference football title away from Nebraska.

It will be anchored by Clarence Herndon and Vic Schleich, rated as fine a pair of tackles as can be found in the loop. Both stand six feet or better and hit the 200 or over mark.

At the flanks are Robert Ludwig and Fred Preston, with George Abel, probably the hardest tackler in the conference with his 200 pounds and a sprinter's speed, at one guard and Fred Meier at the pivot post. All are major letter winners.

The other guard post will probably go to William Bryant or Lynn Myers, both of whom saw action last year although not enough to letter, or Herb Von Goetz, a sophomore.

These are the lads who make Coach Major Lawrence M. Jones a pretty chipper fellow despite the loss of 13 seniors by graduation, four players to the National Guard that went to the Rose Bowl after last year's one-defeat season.

Fine Defensive Team

"We do," Jones commented, "look like a fine defensive team, but I'm not sure what the boys can do offensively. Loss of all our experienced quarterbacks means that strategy will be a problem. Then there's the question of reserves."

The number one choice for quarterback appears to be Marvin Athey, a six-foot, 190-pound sophomore who throws a mean block. Behind him will be the talkative Vike Francis who is after the all-American fullback honor and wants everybody to know it; Allen Zikmund, a sophomore sensation at wingback in the Rose Bowl game, who reported bigger and faster, and Dale Bradley, 175-pound fullback.

The Huskers have a peculiar schedule, opening with conference games against Iowa State at Ames and Kansas at Lincoln, then meeting Indiana at Lincoln before taking to the road for games with Missouri, Kansas State and Minnesota. The final three games—Pitt, Iowa and Oklahoma—are all at Lincoln.

GIVES UNCLE SAM LIFT Moffett Field, Cal.—Charles Heberling, runner-up for the national weight lifting title, is seeking a guard position on the Moffett Field service football team.

If he and Leo the lip would open their mouths to the greatest extent, bleachers could be erected within them to take care of another 50,000."

Brother Joe—

When Joe DiMaggio recently paid a visit to Father Connor of St. John's church in Fairview, N. J., a wide-eyed kid was brought in for a look at the great DiMaggio. Trying to put the boy at ease, Father Connor asked him, "Who's the greatest baseball player in the world today?" The kid hesitated a while, then blurted out, "I'll tell you. The greatest player in the world is Joe's brother—Dominic."

IMPARTIAL RAIN WASHES OUT THE CARDS, DODGERS

Dowpour Creates Two Twin Bills For Today

By JUDSON BAILEY

(Associated Press Sports Writer) Rain falls on the rich and the poor alike and it was an impartial storm that washed out both the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday.

Neither team liked it because the downpour created two double-headers today—the Dodgers at Chicago and the Phillies at St. Louis—right on the threshold of the vitally-important three-game clash of the National League leaders with each other.

But the weatherman by a slight slip at this stage of the crucial competition in the senior circuit could crush the Cardinals virtually out of sight. Trailing by three games. They need to have every contest played in order to maintain their opportunity of catching up. If anything should prevent today's encounters they would be wiped off the schedule. Even if they materialize there is always the chance that some other tilts might be crowded out, so it is just as well to consider, in elementary arithmetic, what the effect of the elements could be.

Present Standings

As the teams stand now, Brooklyn has won 88 and lost 47 compared with St. Louis' 84 and 49. If all contests are played, and St. Louis spurts to capture 16 of its remaining 21 games for a total of 100 victories, Brooklyn still could win by taking 13 of its remaining 19. In that case the final standings would be Brooklyn 101—53; St. Louis 100-54.

If the Dodgers were rained out of two engagements, they would have to take only 11 and still could lose six to beat the Cards' 100-54 in percentage.

If the Cardinals were knocked out of two games, they would have to win 16 and lose only three to beat a Brooklyn finish of 101—53.

You can use any combination you want to, but it all proves that any games rained out of the schedule now means Brooklyn has to win less and St. Louis must win more.

Except for the contests involving the two National League leaders all other games yesterday were reeled off on schedule.

Babe Young hit his 23rd and 24th homers to earn a 4-2 victory for the New York Giants over the Pittsburgh Pirates. His first clout tied the score in the eighth and his second came with one on in the tenth to win the game.

The Cincinnati Reds clustered six runs in the third inning to bag a free-swinging battle from the Boston Braves, 9-7, for Bucky Walters' 17th win.

Bob's 23rd Win

In the American League Bobby Feller obtained his 23rd triumph with nine-hit pitching as the Cleveland Indians overpowered the Philadelphia Athletics, 13-7. The A's contributed five errors toward the Tribe's attack, which included home runs by Jeff Heath, Lou Boudreau and Jim Hegan, a rookie.

The New York Yankees squeezed to a 1-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns on Tom Henrich's 28th homer in the eighth after Spud Chandler and Bob Harris had waged a masterful mound battle to that point.

Dick Newsome pitched four-hit ball to shut out the Detroit Tigers, 6-0, for the Boston Red Sox, who sewed up the game in the second inning when Dom DiMaggio homered with the bases loaded.

The Washington Senators whipped the Chicago White Sox, 7-2, last night, with young Arnold Anderson choking off the Sox when they had men on base.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press) New York—Pete Scalzo, 132½, New York, stopped Jimmy Gilligan, 129½, Buffalo, (6).

White Plains, N. Y.—Artie Dorrell, 145, Tyler, Texas, outpointed Tony Ferrara, 147½, Mount Vernon, N. Y., (8).

California became the fifth largest of the states in the 1940 census, replacing Texas.

Lack of Subcontracts
Delaying Defense Work

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10—(AP)—T. S. McEwan of Chicago, mid-west regional director of the office of Production Management, said Tuesday that important defense contracts are being delayed by failure of manufacturers to allocate work to subcontractors.

Manufacturers from 10 mid-western states here for the regional meeting of the national defense committee for conservation of man power in defense industries heard McEwan's appeal for wider use of small industries in subcontracting.

"While some progress has been made, some important contracts continue behind schedule due to failure on the part of the contractors to share the work with available subcontractors," the OFPM regional director said.

"Valuable machine tools and equipment installed and manned by competent mechanics are thus being lost to the defense effort. At the same time orders are being held up in contractors' plants waiting for similar new equipment to be delivered."

Trans-Pacific clippers steadily dropping high above the water with passengers and mail, are establishing themselves as real veterans of the air. Soon to be recorded will be the 500th clipper crossing between Hong Kong and California.
